Exploitation of hawkers in Railway zones

306. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the report which appeared in the Indian Express of January 7, 1996, captioned, "Humble Hwaker Treads where lawkeepers damur to step in";

(b) if so, what steps have since been taken to liquidate the racket running with the collusion of railway employees and Railway protection Force personnel, operating on Bombay Suburban Railway; and

(c) what steps have been taken to prevent the exploitation of poor hawkers operating in different railway zones?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI SURESH KALMADI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Since "Police (including Railway Police)" and "Public Order" are State subjects under the Seventh Schedule of the constitution of India, registration and investigation into any complaint of alleged racked or exploitation of hawkers operating in the train or at the Railway premises is the responsibility of Government Railway Police (GRP) which functions under the control of respctive State Government/ U.T. Administration. Action is taken against any railway employees including RPF if any collusion or exploitation on his part is proved.

Hawking/selling eatables or other articles by unauthorised vendors/hawkers in trains and on station premises is an offence under Section 144 of the Railways Act, 1989. To eradicate this mence, frequent checks are conducted with the help of Railway Protection Force and Government Railway Police staff. Persons so apprehended are dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Railwys Act.
